

SDG1: No Poverty

University Anti-Poverty Programs

- The Arab Open University provides educational opportunities for students through the Student Support Fund, which aims to assist financially struggling students and reward outstanding students by granting them scholarships. This initiative reflects the university's commitment to educational inclusion and no poverty.

Student Support Fund

- The number of students who have benefited from the fund is 157 students.