Safeguarding at AOU

AOU promotes safeguarding values through its commitment to equality, diversity and respect for the dignity of others, especially those protected groups as highlighted in the equal opportunity and respect for diversity policy.

AOU ensures to protect and respond to harm or abuse and to protect the health, well-being, rights and the dignity of individuals".

AOU works to protect the rights and safety of all 'Vulnerable Groups' that include children, individuals/ students under the age of 18 years old or adults of the age of 18 and above who are unable to protect themselves from harm, abuse, harassment or exploitation. It also includes those who are deemed at risk due to their gender, disability, physical or mental health, ethnicity, religious beliefs or social or economic background".

AOU works to protect all individuals against any kind of 'harassment' that includes unwanted behavior or conduct which has the purpose or effect of violating a person's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment".

AOU works to protect all individuals against any kind of 'Abuse' which include any form of maltreatment and can take many forms including physical, emotional, verbal and discriminatory abuse.
